I would like to see an Economic Development for Dummies where things like TIFs, CIDs, NIDs, TDDs, etc. are detailed and then discussed. Some of these do wonderful things while others fail miserably. Let's talk about why.

SESSION EVALUATION QUESTION #1 COMMENTS:

Great insights from all the presenters. And thank you for getting us home before dark!

Holifield was excellent, very thought provoking

The afternoon felt somewhat like "vacation slide shows" as opposed to personal development

Afghanistan presentation was a little long

CONFERENCE EVALUATION QUESTION #2 COMMENTS:

The presentation by Mr. Holifield was excellent. It was the same quality as his previous presentation at last year's MCMA event. He should be used for presentations in the future

Liked the alumni center as a better location Should designate a "conference hotel" - perhaps with a group room rate

It was all good. The Happy Hour is very important. Very glad I made time to attend it.

You are an excellent planner, or we lucked out on the weather. Either way, it worked out great

LIFE WELL RUN QUESTION #3 COMMENTS:

I am not sure yet

I would contribute to Rich Noll scholarship instead

As much as I could afford. I genuinely believe I am the least paid CA in Missouri.

MANAGERS IN TRANSITION QUESTION #4 COMMENTS:

Have not used it, but glad it's there. Sorry no specific feedback. I thought we could do a better job of talking about what the program entails, other than waiving fees for conferences

I will probably be relying on it one of these days

SPRING CONFERENCE IN KC QUESTION #5 COMMENTS:

Overall, I like the idea, but I will not truly know until the event is held

I think the idea is fine but it was rolled out in a confusing way. I was unsure of what was going on and had to do research to decide what I wanted to do

Would love to go, doesn't work with schedule and / or budget unfortunately

I like the idea, but since I did not register early enough, I now believe the registration fee is expensive

I like the idea, but it is a bit cost-prohibitive

OTHER SUGGESTIONS QUESTION #6 COMMENTS:

More nuts and bolts for young managers = perhaps concurrent sessions

I would like to see an Economic Development for Dummies where things like TIFs, CIDs, NIDs, TDDs, etc. are detailed and then discussed. Some of these do wonderful things while others fail miserably. Let's talk about why
